13. Results

Interim results will be posted, as a minimum at the end of each day. They will be posted to a virtual Notice Board and where possible a physical Notice board.

Full provisional results will be posted at the Rally HQ at the finish and to a virtual Notice Board. If no queries or protests are received they will become FINAL 30 minutes after posting.

The FINAL Results will be published on the website / the Digital Notice Board and physical Notice Board in the Rally HQ in the Lobby.

Details of the website/ Digital Notice Board will be provided in the Final Instructions.

If more than one Crew has the same number of fewest penalties then the winners will be the Crew with the lowest number of penalties at the first TP. If that is the same a countback will continue from the second TP until a difference is identified.

Any queries should be raised with the Clerk of the Course, a physical form will be available along with an electronic process.

14. Official time used during the rally

Local time will be used. Official time will be confirmed within the Final Instructions.

15. Awards

An Award will be presented to the winners of the General Classification (the crew with the fewest number of penalty points).

If more than one Crew has the same number of fewest penalties then the winners will be the Crew with the lowest number of penalties at the first TP. If that is the same a count-forward will continue from the second TP until a difference is identified.

A First in Class Award will be given to the Crews in Classes Vintage, Historic, Post Historic and Classic with the fewest Time Penalties. The General Classification winner will not be eligible for a Class Award.

Young Timer and Modern Classes are not eligible for overall General Classification Award nor a First in Class Award.

Other Ad hoc awards may be presented at the Organisers discretion.

16. Protest & Appeal

The provisions of the FIVA Events Code shall be applied. The right to protest lies solely with the Competitor who may consider he/she is aggrieved by any decision, act or omission of an Organiser, official, other Competitor or any other person connected with the Event. Any protest is to be considered by the Clerk of the Course.

The protest must be made in writing, lodged not later than 30 minutes after publishing of the provisional results. The Clerk of the Course must inform the FIVA and other Event Stewards of the time and place for the hearing of the Protester that shall take place before the results are declared Final.

All Event Stewards should be present at this hearing but should refrain from taking part in the discussions. Until the final decision is taken the publishing of the Final results is suspended. All parties must be given notice of the hearing by the Clerk of the Course and it should be held as soon as possible after the receipt of the protest. The parties are entitled to call witnesses but must state their own case and are not entitled to legal representation. If any party, having been given adequate notice of the hearing, fails to appear, the Official(s) may give judgement in default. Private videos are not accepted as evidence. The hearing of the protest should be in private with only involved parties present.

Should the complainant still not be satisfied, he/she has the right, to appeal to the Panel of Stewards, whose verdict is final and to be provided before the Results are declared Final.

16. Amendments

These ASRs and the 2025 Scenic Rally Tours Standard Regulations may be amended by the organisers. Any amendments will be advised via a dated bulletin and these will form part of the event regulations.
